

Books Of Machray And Sharpe Law Firm In Poor Shape Probe Reveals

EMPLOYEE OF MACHRAY KNEW OF SHORTAGES

Trust Funds Lumped Together in Firm's General Banking Account

WINNIPEG, Sept. 20.—Bookkeeping methods of this investment firm of Machray & Sharpe, the head of which is John A. Machray, K.C., charged with theft of more than $900,000 from the University of Manitoba, were under review in Bankruptcy court here Monday. James Kerr, employed by the firm as an accountant, since 1925, gave evidence at the hearing of a petition in bankruptcy launched by the university.

Entries in the books relating to the university land board and the lowest trust accounts, had not been signed up since 1925, Kerr said, and statements might be in the same condition. No attempt was made to make a yearly balance and the books for years had been "in very bad shape."

SOLD BONDS
On two separate occasions, Kerr admitted, he had signed a number of bonds through a brokerage house to bolster shortfalls in the land board accounts. In April, 1931, he had sold bonds valued at $700,000 and in April this year $100,000 worth of securities had been sold through a brokerage firm for an advance of $60,000. This block had later been sold to the money market by Mr. Machray on 23 Jan. The money had been used for the purchase of a new building and taken up by Kerr.

Kerr's evidence was the first light yet thrown on the internal workings of Machray & Sharpe, a firm of accountants and also a chartered accountant of the University of Manitoba. The accounts of both institutions are annually audited. The charges of Kerr, however, were placed at $480,000. He said Machray in 1925 had received $800,000 from a former law partner.

WITNESS WARNED
So startling were the disclosures that Chief Justice D.A. Macdonald warned the witness he was making a dangerous admission. A. B. Kerr, K.C., responded that he was very, thought Kerr should have been given a chance to explain the further proceedings were started and the Chief Justice said he had the authority to grant protection, and again warned Kerr, who continued to give his evidence frankly with little apparent regard to consequences.

Kerr admitted he had known of a shortage in the trust accounts and to the Machray-Sharpe partnership. He said he had been told by the partner, Mr. Machray, that he had the authority to grant protection, and again warned Kerr, who continued to give his evidence frankly with little apparent regard to consequences.

ALL LIES
University funds, trust money of private individuals and the personal accounts of the partnership were lumped together and kept in a Montreal vault with the Bank of Montreal. Kerr said he had been told by the partner, Mr. Machray, that he had the authority to grant protection, and again warned Kerr, who continued to give his evidence frankly with little apparent regard to consequences.

PETITION OPPOSED
Kerr said he had been told by the partner, Mr. Machray, that he had the authority to grant protection, and again warned Kerr, who continued to give his evidence frankly with little apparent regard to consequences.

MARKED INQUIRY
Kerr said he had been told by the partner, Mr. Machray, that he had the authority to grant protection, and again warned Kerr, who continued to give his evidence frankly with little apparent regard to consequences.

Mahatma—India Mystery Man—Family

Mahatma Gandhi is seen in characteristic pose in centre, exactly as he can be seen in jail, where he spends his entire days spinning. The mark which distinguishes his hair can be seen in his forehead in upper left. Gandhi's wife, also in jail, is shown in upper right. She also bears the same mark. Their eldest son, Manilal, is shown in lower left, and Devi Chaud, the youngest son, in lower right. Mahatma Gandhi, strange mystic of India, now in prison, has informed the British government that on September 20 he will begin starving himself to death as a protest against Great Britain's decision to create separate electorates for the depressed classes of India.

RACKETEERING IS CHARGED TO U.S. BUSINESS

Organized Labor Leaders Also Criticized by Employer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Racketeering by business men, leaders of organized labor, criminals and politicians was charged today by Gordon L. Hostetter, of Chicago, with causing a stupendous economic loss annually to the American public.

Hostetter is executive director of the Employers' Association of Chicago. In an address before the national conference of the American public.

"Racketeering is an inside job and a native American product," he said. "It is the result of the failure of the government to control the racket."

Hostetter estimated that racketeering cost the American public $100,000,000 a year.

CALL OF THE WEST

STAN BALL, outlaw, undertook to prove that the powerful Delo Lumber Company was robbing the Blind River ranchers. Ball played his desperate game for high stakes — his life and the heart of a girl.

FIGHTING, PLUNGING--

THE big roan shot into the air. The girl used her spurs, clung fast. Dona DeLo's mastery of the spirited horse was but the first of a series of exciting adventures at her father's timber camp. Kidnapped by a daring outlaw, rescued, defying a group of angry men bent on a lynching, Dona is always in the forefront of action in the new serial, "Call of the West," by R. G. Montgomery. It is a story filled with thrills. Watch for it.

TO DONA DELO the call of the open country was irresistible. Chance took her to her father's timber camp when a posse was forming for a man hunt and immediately she was plunged into exciting adventures.

HERE is a western serial written especially for newspaper readers. A hard riding, two-gun hero, a beautiful heroine, a feud between cattle and timber men and an angry posse on a man hunt — these are elements in this exciting tale of the range country. R. G. Montgomery, former cow-boy, well known for his books and magazine contributions, is the author. Illustrations are by Ethel Hays, distinguished Bulletin Serial Story artist, who knows how to put action and thrill into every line of her drawings.

Italian Ship Braves Storm For Churchill Port

GENOA VESSEL LOADS 320,000 BUSHELS GRAIN

Largest Carrier to Reach North Port Battles the Waves of Hudson

CHURCHILL, Man., Sept. 20.—First Italian steamer to open trade between Western Canada and Italy, the steamship Pietro Campanella, of Genoa, is loading about 320,000 bushels of grain here for overseas shipment.

Lightly passing off its rough voyage from Cardiff, which commenced about three weeks, Captain Luigi Schiaffino, the master, said he had little difficulty reaching Churchill without a gyro compass. The Campanella is the largest grain carrier to reach this new northern port this season, according to Capt. Furewell, Greenland, and arrived in Hudson Bay delayed for about five days and docked here Sunday morning to begin loading at once.

With the weather clearing somewhat, three deep sea ships are expected to clear for British and Italian ports this week. In addition to the Campanella, the British steamship, Bright Park, and the Italian, Clara are expected to arrive for grain loading in the next few days. It is expected the Ocean Eagle, government survey ship, will make the first trip to the ice region in the near future.

MEDICINE HAT, Sept. 19.—Fifteen gilled the community for arena here early Saturday. The 1500 were seen rapidly firemen could do to confine the flames to the building. Damage is estimated at $25,000.

PUNCH BOARD APPEAL LOST

With Chief Justice Horace Harvey presiding, the appellate division of the supreme court of Alberta on Monday dismissed the appeal of the firm of Lush and Gordon, Ltd., from a conviction registered in the criminal court by Mr. Justice Frank Ford and a fine of $50 for selling punch boards to residents.

The decision of the court was given from the bench.

In convicting Lush and Gordon, Mr. Justice Ford ruled that the punch boards were a lottery and this decision has been upheld by the higher courts.

In support of the appeal, it was stated that the boards were sold on the specific understanding that they would not be used illegally—a provision which was included in a statement printed on the boards.

The case started when several of the boards were found in the premises of Thomas Shaw, a dealer in Vancouver and in Regina, and were held to be illegal. Mr. Lush had sold to Mr. Justice Ford. He had imported 120 of them, which number had been sold in and around Edmonton.

P. G. Thomson, K.C., appeared for respondent and R. B. Cagwell, K.C., appeared for the crown.

Motorcade and touring parties in many parts of Canada and the United States have been making plans to include a visit to the World Peace Shrine at Regina during their tours in 1932.

HOLLYWOOD GOSSIP

INTIMATE GLIMPSES AND INSIDE STUFF ON THE MOVIE COLONY

By DAN THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 20.—Wandering around: Norma Shearer basting toward her dressing room . . . she's about the only big star on the M.G.M. lot who still wears her original dressing gown . . . most of the others have built bungalows of various shapes and sizes . . . that studio bungalow racket is a good one . . . if the star can get away with it . . . Ruth Chatterton even lives in hers when she's working.

A young chap singing outside a studio casting office . . . he appears and goes through his routine about three times a week in the hope of getting a job . . . and that might do it . . . Betty Davis going into her bank wearing a pair of brilliant pyjamas . . . at least she looks like it . . . Nora Gregor also dashing down the boulevard in pyjamas . . . Wally Berry jogging around in a German text book . . . he actually studies it, too . . . Edward Woods just back from New York to play his first screen role in nearly a year . . . after which he will hot-foot it right back to Broadway for another screen role . . . Alie Allen, who has a job in which only her legs are used . . . the new pictures.

MYRNA'S PROBLEMS
Nancy Carroll buying some neckties . . . wonder what friend hubby will think when she gets her new ones . . . Wynne Gibson and Carole Lombard going over to the studio gym for their afternoon workout . . . Myrna Loy displaying more freckles than ever . . . if that's possible . . . the top of that camera does to her . . . Mary Donahue's time from her studio . . . she's in much about half as much as she used to be . . . one of these days is really going to get a break.

CHARLIE BUTTERWORTH changing a tire on his way to Malibu . . . poor guy . . . The annual crowd at the summer film capital . . . most of them as they have to wear light makeup when they work . . . John Boles and his youngsters also in the ocean . . . Charlie and Wally Chapman.

REBE'S STILL PLAYING TENNIS
It's easy to find almost any kind of sport going on at Malibu . . . even those, often leading critics on occasion . . . Constance Talmadge playing tennis on Herbert Brenson's court . . . some of them are finding the game a bit difficult to leave . . . on which they still have a lot of years ahead of them . . . Quite a crowd playing golf . . . with Billie Gates as referee . . . Connie and Joan Bennett dropping the watermelon . . . eat sandwiches . . . pardon me, did I hear someone mention cocktails?

AMUSEMENTS

CAPITOL
Ever since the beautiful and beautiful actress, followed by literature, the drama and the screen have been captivated by ideal lovers. All a pair of ideal lovers have brought to the screen. They are the same theme and the same and they can be seen in that most talked of and remarkable book of Fannie Hurst, "Black Street," which Universal has been a year and a half in bringing to the screen. A lot of this time was expended in a thorough and exhaustive search for just the right two people to play the roles of Jay Schmidt and Valerie.
